MEMORY VERSE

"Be strong, and show yourself a man, and keep the charge of the Lord your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his rules, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn." 1 Kings 2:3

THE KINGS

BUSY BIN

As the kids arrive, they will pick up a snack, drink and container of Playdough from the table. Tell the kids that today we will learn about David's son, Solomon. In a dream the Lord asked Solomon if he could have anything he wanted, what would he choose. Today we will learn what Solomon chose. What if the Lord asked you this question? What would you choose? Build some of the things you would ask for using the Playdough.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON

As a group, look up the definition of the word wisdom in the dictionary. From there make a list of synonyms and antonyms for wise and un-wise. Think about situations where you would need wisdom. What would be the wise way to handle certain situations? What would be the unwise way to handle them? What does the Bible say about wisdom? Where does wisdom come from? What does the Bible say about people who are wise? What about people who are foolish? Why is it important to be wise? Why would it be especially important for the king of God's people to be wise?

THE KINGS

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

Soon after David marries Bathsheba, the consequences of his sin begin to reverberate throughout his family, imprisoning all of them in a web of deceit, betrayal, and death. David's repentance was real, but there were still consequences for his actions. In 2 Samuel 13-20 the judgement pronounced on David is unleashed.

Later, we see God's remarkable mercy when the Lord blesses and loves the second son of Bathsheba and David, Solomon (12:24-25). One might think that any son of what began as an adulterous union would never be the one to succeed David, but through God's grace, Solomon was specially loved by the Lord and named king.

"When David's time to die drew near, he commanded Solomon his son, saying, 'I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong and show yourself a man, and keep the charge of the Lord your God, walking in his ways and keeping his statutes, his commandments, his rules, and his testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn' (1 Kings 2:3). These parting words to Solomon echo God's words to Joshua after Moses' death in Joshua 1:6-9 as both stress faithfulness in obedience to the Mosaic Law found in Deuteronomy. God himself speaks directly to Solomon twice, reiterating what David declared: if you obey, you will be blessed, but if you disobey, bad things will happen. (1 Kings 3:14; 9:4-9).

In 1 Kings 2:10-12 we read that after David's forty-year reign in Israel, he dies and is buried. "So Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was firmly established." God is doing for Solomon what he had done for David. (2 Samuel 5:12 and 1 Kings 2:24). "Solomon loved the Lord, walking in the statutes of his father David." (1 Kings 3:3). Solomon sacrifices many burnt offerings to the Lord. One night, God comes to him in a dream and says, "Ask, what I shall give you." (3:5). Solomon acknowledges that God has shown "great" and steadfast love" to David, his father. He also tells God that he is "just a little child" who does not "know how to go out or come in". Solomon recognizes that he is in the midst of "God's chosen, a great people, too many to number." (3:8). Solomon asks for "an understanding mind to govern God's people, that he may discern between good and evil" (1 Kings 3:9). Solomon seems to feel inadequate in view of the great task that confronts him, confessing ignorance. Solomon wants to hear God's voice advising him on how to rule, to make decisions that reflect God's heart for His people.

THE KINGS

“It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.” (3:10) Since Solomon does not ask for long life or riches or the life of his enemies, God gives him “not only great wisdom but wealth, honor, and respect, as well as a largeness of heart like the sand on the seashore” (4:29) It is the fear of the Lord that is the beginning of true wisdom (Job 28:28; Psalm 111:10; Proverbs 15:33). The wise and discerning mind given to Solomon by God is a supernatural gift. In the possession of such wisdom Solomon is unparalleled in Israelite history.

The Israelite king is the highest court of appeal and the foundation of all justice (1 Kings 3:28). Solomon, the new possessor of wisdom, has no problem seeing through the words of two prostitutes who come to him seeking a solution to their situation. The conclusion of this legal case reveals that the Lord has granted Solomon’s request for wisdom. Through Solomon’s understanding of human nature, the identity of the true mother is rightly ascertained, and Israel realizes that the wisdom of God is in their king, Solomon.

QUESTIONS TO REBUILD THE STORY

As you ask these questions, have your 2nd-5th grade kids find the answers in the actual verses of scripture instead of recalling them from your re-telling of the story. We always want to encourage all of our kids to go directly to God's Word over a commentary on or summary of scripture.

1. What was David's advice to Solomon in 1 Kings 2:2? Why does he give this advice? (2:4)
2. Where can we find the Law of Moses? What book of the Bible?
3. What does 1 Kings 3:3 tell us about Solomon?
4. What happened when he was sacrificing at Gibeon? What question does God ask him?
5. What is Solomon's response to God's question? Why does he need/want this?
6. How does God respond to Solomon's request in 3:10-14? What extra things does God give Solomon since he didn't ask for superficial or selfish things?
7. Re-tell the story of the two prostitutes with the one baby.
8. What is Solomon's solution for this situation? How does he know who is telling the truth?
9. What is wisdom? Where does it come from? How can we get it? Why is it important for us today?
