MEMORY VERSE

"The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance." 1 Peter 3:9

THE PROPHETS

BUSY BIN

As the kids arrive, they will stop by the table to pick up a snack and a drink. Each classroom will have a box of building materials for the kids to play with as their classmates arrive.

INTRODUCTION TO THE LESSON

What is trust? How do you know if you can trust someone or something? Lead the kids to come around to the idea that trust is built over time when someone or something proves themselves to be trustworthy through consistent behavior. For instance, you trust your parents to feed you because they cook dinner every night, you trust the bus driver to get you to school on time because that is what happens every morning, you trust your bed to support you when you get on it because that is what happens at the end of each day. Today we will learn about a king who trusted God in all things.

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

After being conquered by the Assyrians, the kingdom of Israel was imploding. The kingdom of Judah would continue for another 150 years. At this time, King Hezekiah reigned over Judah. This king followed the Lord as David did (29:2) and turned Judah back to Yahweh. In response, “all Israel” went out and destroyed idols in the land (31:1). The priests and Levites were appointed to serve in their divisions as structured by David, so that sacrifices and praise would be offered (Chapter 31 and 1 Chronicles 23-25). The narrator of 2 Chronicles focuses on the re-opening of the temple and the roles of priests and Levites (29:3-5). Hezekiah made a covenant with the Lord, and the Levites consecrated themselves to cleanse the temple (29:10-19). Sacrifices were offered according to the law to secure atonement for the people (29:20-24). The Levites were stationed to play instruments and to sing, and the assembly worshipped the Lord and sang his praises (29:25-30) and offered sacrifices of joy and consecration (29:31-33). Contributions and tithes were brought so that they could perform their ministry. King Hezekiah broke down the altars and idols throughout the area and encouraged the people to return to God (2 Kings 18:4-8). Hezekiah kept the Lord’s commands, for he trusted in the Lord (18:5-6). The Lord was with him (18:7), for the Lord always defends one who lives to honor his name. Hezekiah also reinstated the Passover, long neglected and forgotten during all the years of the bad kings (2 Chronicles 30). There was great joy in Jerusalem because there had been no time like this since the time of Solomon (30:25-27).

This change of heart and renewal of faith came at just the right time, because soon afterward, Assyria invaded Judah. Having conquered the northern kingdom of Israel some years earlier, Assyria, prepared to lay siege to Jerusalem. Assyria approached Jerusalem twice. The first time, the Assyrian king threatened Jerusalem, but was paid off with a tribute (2 Kings 18). The second time, a new king fresh off his conquest of the rest of Judah, sent his chief of staff to the gates of Jerusalem with an intimidating letter promising destruction (2 Kings 18). Hezekiah prepared to resist, building up the city walls and watchtowers and forging weapons and shields. He encouraged the people not to fear Assyria, saying, “With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the Lord our God, to help us and to fight our battles” (2 Chronicles 32:8). 3

Hezekiah rebelled against Assyria (18:7). The Assyrians had no doubt that they would capture Jerusalem, ridiculing the idea that the Lord would deliver Israel from their hand (18:19-37), for the gods of other nations had been unable to withstand the might of the Assyrian superpower. However, the Lord promised to spare Jerusalem from Assyria's hand to thwart Assyria's pride (2 Kings 19).

The king sent messengers and letters to discourage everyone in Jerusalem (2 Chronicles 6-19). "Don't think your God can save you," they said. "Every other nation we've conquered built up their defenses and trusted their gods—and it did them no good. It won't help you either. Save yourself the trouble and surrender now". Given Assyria's track record, their threats had weight and credibility, but they did not have the God that Hezekiah served. They were no match for God's power.

Assyrian troops, at the time the mightiest army in the world, surrounded the city, preparing to lay siege. King Hezekiah spread out the letter before the Lord (2 Kings 19:14), praying for God to intervene and save his people. Isaiah the prophet came in and encouraged the king. Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah led the people in crying out to God to deliver them, and God came through big time: "The Lord sent an angel who cut down every mighty man of valor, leader, and captain in the camp of the king of Assyria" (2 Chronicles 32:21). Hezekiah prayed that God would deliver Jerusalem (19:15-19), and Yahweh answered his prayer. Because Hezekiah humbled himself before God, God took care of Assyria and became the strong deliverer for Israel, sending a single angel to wipe out 185,000 Assyrian troops (2 Kings 19:35). Assyria had an army of 185,000, but Judah had an army of ONE. God's people trusted Him in their hour of need. Hezekiah and Jerusalem were spared from the Assyrians because they trusted in the Lord (2 Chronicles 32). God's name was honored by this deliverance, and the Davidic king was vindicated (19:34). This deliverance under Hezekiah signifies that the Lord will ultimately rescue His people.

BACKGROUND INFO FOR LEADERS

After this, Assyria's army was destroyed, which left it open to being conquered by a new world power, Babylon. A century and a half passed after God spared Judah in Hezekiah's time, with various successor kings taking Judah's throne. Only one of them, Josiah (Hezekiah's great-grandson) did right by God. Eventually Babylon made three successive attacks against Jerusalem and Judah fell into exile to the Babylonians.

Hezekiah didn't finish well. He became arrogant after God fought the Assyrians and blessed him with wealth and power. God humbled Hezekiah with a major illness. Also, when Babylonian ambassadors came to check out all of Hezekiah's wealth and splendor, "God withdrew from him, in order to test him, that He might know all that was in his heart" (v.31). Hezekiah flunked, showing the Babylonians all the wealth in the treasury, which enticed his visitors to put Jerusalem on their list of places to invade and conquer. Judah was conquered by the Babylonians about 30 years after Hezekiah's death.

QUESTIONS TO REBUILD THE STORY

“Storying” Questions: As you ask these questions, have your 2nd-5th grade kids find the answers in the actual verses of scripture instead of recalling them from your re-telling of the story. We always want to encourage all of our kids to go directly to God’s Word over a commentary on or summary of scripture.

1. Which kingdom was conquered first?
2. Which enemy defeated them?
3. Why did God allow this to happen?
4. How do we see God’s grace and mercy in this?
5. What does this tell us about how God sees sin? How should this affect the way we see sin?
6. What else does this tell us about God’s character?
7. How much longer did the second kingdom (Judah) continue?
8. Who was the king of Judah during this time?
9. What are some high points of King Hezekiah’s reign?
10. What actions show us that Hezekiah trusted God in the midst of conflict and distress?
11. Which prophet assisted Hezekiah?
12. Can we draw any conclusions about why Israel was destroyed 150 years before Judah?

THE PROPHETS

PRAYER PROMPTS

God, You are just and merciful. Thank You for sending Jesus to take the punishment for our sin. Help us to be quick to repent! We love You!

IF TIME ALLOWS:

Help the kids in your group practice memorizing the books of the Bible by singing through the Books of the Bible song on our Books of the Bible Spotify playlist. Use the printed copies of the books of the Bible in your classroom to follow along. 3rd-5th graders, practice putting the books of the Bible in order using the popsicle sticks. Have several groups of kids compete against each other or work together to see how fast your class can order them.

MISSIONS EMPHASIS:

For the months of August, September and October Creek Kids will be collecting money for the Connie Maxwell Children's Home. Please visit their website for pictures and descriptions of some of the services they offer that you can share with your group. A generous donor will match all of our donations. Encourage your class to collect money and donate it in the giving funnel in the upstairs lobby. Kids can donate with their families as they arrive, or you can go together as a class on the way back to the Worship Center at the end of SS.

REVIEW UNIT VERSE:

Work on memorizing this weeks verse with the kids in your group. Use the Memory Verse Idea Handout for some fun ways to work on the verse together.
